

We Need More Room for the Sample Garment Store

There never was a sale at this store without some good reason. And there never was a better reason for a sale than the fact that we not only NEED MORE ROOM but MUST have more room by the middle of next week. A sacrifice of household necessities is the result. SALE STARTS AT 8 O'CLOCK TOMORROW MORNING.

No Phone or Mail Orders Accepted

Already we have had many inquiries by phone or wire about this sale. Owing to the numerous reflections and because of possible confusion, we cannot accept telephone or mail orders for any of the merchandise offered in this tremendous clearance at prices that do not even indicate the cost of the goods. This does not apply to other merchandise, of course.

At 8 o'Clock Tomorrow Begins the Great Economy Basement Sale

Never before in the history of the retail trade in Oklahoma City has there been such values in House Furnishings of every description. Don't overlook a single item in this announcement. All thought of former prices forgotten.

No thrifty housewife can afford to miss this great bargain sale of hundreds of useful household necessities. Space forbids a detailed description of the big bargains mentioned or anything like a complete list of the dependable goods that have been marked to go at a mere fraction of their real value.
